Golf Advisor ranks Eagles Landing Top Course in Maryland

Ocean City, Maryland – (March 14, 2017): The Town of Ocean City’s very own Eagles Landing was recently named #1 Best Course in Maryland by Golf Advisor. The courses on their list, which spanned from Ocean City to Washington D.C. and Baltimore, were scored on their overall rating and subcategory average.

According to their website, reviews were weighted based on how prolific that reviewer is on Golf Advisor, and a course receives a bump in their rating if their score is better than that reviewer's average score. “Something I think is really worth noting is that this is based on reviews of golfers, our customers, whom have played Eagle’s Landing,” commented Bob Croll, PGA Head Professional at Eagle’s Landing. “It reflects how satisfied our customers are after playing our golf course. If you look at the categories, Eagles Landing ranked in the top in conditions and received almost perfect scores for staff friendliness, course layout and value. We are very proud of the service we provide and are excited that our customers recognize what Eagles Landing has to offer!”
